

LOCAL GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEE-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS BOARD

In the Matter of the
BOULDER CITY EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION,
INC.,

Case No. Al-045286

Appellant,

vs.

CITY OF BOULDER CITY, NEVADA,

Respondent.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

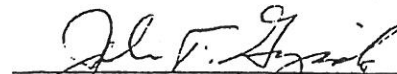

By appeal filed March 25, 1975, the Boulder City Employees Association sought a determination that the respondent improperly withdrew its recognition as the exclusive bargaining agent for certain local government employees of Boulder City. On April 14, 1975, the City moved to dismiss the appeal; the motion reflects service on counsel for the appellant. When we received no response to the motion, we notified the appellant's counsel on May 30, 1975. His letter of June 4, 1975, indicated that no response would be filed. Since the motion is unopposed we will not consider its merits. It is ORDERED that the complaint be, and the same hereby is, dismissed without prejudice.

Dated this 18th day of July, 1975.

Chris N. Karamanos, Board Chairman

John T. Gojack, Board Vice Chairman
